

January Newsletter

Happy New Year! January is here and that means back to school again! There are many exciting things to do and learn in store for your child in the coming weeks.

Our themes for the month of January are: Snow/Winter, Health, and the Five Senses.

In the Red Room we will continue to use the large motor equipment and playing group games. They will also be practicing large motor skills such as; alternating feet on the steps, skipping, and bouncing a ball.

In the Blue Room we will be playing games, using our five senses, and dressing up as doctors and nurses.

In the Yellow Room we will be finger painting with shaving cream, using different types of media to paint or draw pictures, and making winter projects.
